

Chesapeake Bay Chapter

The Antique and Classic Boat Society

invites you to attend our

30th Annual Antique & Classic Boat Festival

Friday-Monday, June 16-19, 2017

At the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum in beautiful St. Michaels, Maryland

In addition to enjoying our great boat show, you'll find historic St. Michaels to be a great destination for a day trip or a weekend, with inviting shops, excellent restaurants and charming homes.

Registration: Your Boat Festival registration and entry forms need to be completed and received no later than June 1, 2017. Walk-in registrations will be charged an additional fee of $25, and there may not be space for your boat(s). Also, any boats registered after the deadline of June 1st, including Festival walk-ins, will not be eligible for judging. Please contact Ray Glenn at 410-867-7853 or email us at Ray.R.Glenn@gmail.com if you have questions or require additional information.

Docking Information: As always, we will accommodate as many boats as possible, but there are a limited number of slips. Please register early to ensure your slip reservation. For more information, contact Dock Master Hank Reiser at 410-533-8752 or via email at cruisers202@msn.com.

Field of Dreams (FOD) and Nautical Flea Market (NFM) – for Boat Festival registered and non-registered participants: A section of the museum grounds has been designated to exhibit classic boats and motors that are for sale and an area is available to sell your used nautical treasures. FOD & NFM sellers can register for the show (page 2) with all its privileges or register for the FODs and/or NFM only (pages 5&6). For information or to reserve space, contact Ray Maule at 410-299-8652 or via email at lattelinda@verizon.net

The Arts at Navy Point: Enjoy meeting Marine Specialists and local, regional & nationally recognized artists, artisans and marine vendors. Professional vendors can register by contacting John Into at 410-745-3965 or via email at johninto@intothings.com

River Cruises: This year there will be two cruises, a 2 ½ hour free cruise Friday afternoon around Wye Island and a luncheon cruise on Monday (see below). Guests will be accommodated on a space available basis at discretion of Captain. Captains bring extra life preservers. Friday cruise participants meet at 1:30 at the Oystering Building deck.

Friday Night Captain's Cocktail Party: Join us at Navy Point from 6:00-7:30 for cocktails & light hors d'oeuvres where you'll meet like-minded boaters and enthusiasts who share the love for antique & classic boats and motors.

Youth Program: An opportunity to build and race your very own wood boat! Also, an opportunity to learn about these beautiful boats on display, by being a judge. Each judge gets a hat, T-shirt, and lanyard. Meet at 11:00 on Saturday by the Kids Pool. Sign up required. Please contact Stephanie Ryan 703-869-1626 or sryan@ryanlawpllc.com for additional information.

Saturday afternoon Seminars: Check our web site www.chesapeakebayacbs.org for the updated list.

Sunday Vendor and Registrant Breakfast: Join us for continental breakfast at the Steamboat Building Sunday morning.

Sunday Awards Picnic: Join us for delectable treats and a memorable picnic. Awards to follow the picnic.

Monday River Cruise & Picnic: Stay over Sunday night, avoid the traffic and take a cruise on the beautiful Myles and Wye Rivers on Monday and complete your day with a picnic. Sign up on the registration form.

Accommodations: We recommend that you make reservations as soon as possible. Information on accommodations can be found on the St. Michaels Chamber of Commerce website: www.stmichaelsmd.org. No pets, unfortunately, are permitted on the Museum grounds during show hours.

Field of Dreams Boat Entry Information for Registered & Non-Registered Participants

Only ACBS qualified boats are accepted: boats manufactured prior to 1992 or wooden boats built within the last 25 years.

Each boat in the Field of Dreams area must have a "FOR SALE" sign provided by the Field of Dreams manager (see Registration Desk at the Festival), which will include the specifics of that boat.

Pre-registration is not required, but desired, to guarantee a slot. You may show up at the festival at any time during show hours on Friday or Saturday and enter your boat in the Field of Dreams, assuming a slot exists. Costs are the same regardless of the entry time.
