

Chesapeake Bay Chapter

The Antique and Classic Boat Society

invites you to attend our

31st Annual Antique & Classic Boat Festival

Friday-Monday, June 15 – 18, 2018

At the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum in beautiful St. Michaels, Maryland

In addition to enjoying our great boat show, you'll find historic St. Michaels to be a great destination for a day trip or a weekend, with inviting shops, excellent restaurants and charming homes.

Registration: Your Boat Festival registration and entry forms need to be completed and received no later than June 1, 2018. Include a picture (jpeg) of your boat. ACBS rules apply: Non-wood boats manufactured prior to 1993 and wooden boats of any vintage are acceptable.

Walk-in registrations after June 1 will be charged an additional fee of $25, and there may not be space for your boat(s). Also, any boats registered after the deadline of June 1st will not be eligible for judging.

Please contact Ray Glenn at 410-867-7853 or email us at Ray.R.Glenn@gmail.com if you have questions or require additional information.

Docking Information: As always, we will accommodate as many boats as possible, but there are a limited number of slips. Please register early to ensure your slip reservation. For more information, contact Dock Master Hank Reiser at 410-533-8752 or via email at cruisers202@msn.com.

Field of Dreams (FOD) and Nautical Flea Market (NFM) – for Boat Festival registered and non-registered participants: A section of the museum grounds and an in-water area has been designated to exhibit classic boats. Also an area is available to sell your used nautical treasures. FOD & NFM sellers can register for the show (page 2) with all its privileges or register for the FODs and/or NFM only (pages 5&6). For information or to reserve space, contact Ray Maule at 410-299-8652 or via email at lattelinda@verizon.net

The Arts at Navy Point: Enjoy meeting Marine Specialists and local, regional & nationally recognized artists, artisans and marine vendors. Professional vendors can register by contacting John Into at 410-745-5954 or via email at johninto@outlook.com

River Cruises: This year there will be two cruises, a 2 ½ hour free cruise around Wye Island on Friday afternoon and a luncheon cruise on Monday (see below). Guests will be accommodated on a space available basis at discretion of Captain. Captains bring extra life preservers. Friday cruise participants meet at 1:30 at the Oystering Building deck.

Friday Night Captain's Cocktail Party: Join us at Navy Point from 6:00-8:00 for cocktails & light hors d'oeuvres where you'll meet like-minded boaters and enthusiasts who share the love for antique & classic boats and motors.

Saturday afternoon Seminars: Check our web site www.chesapeakebayacbs.org for the updated list.

Sunday Vendor and Registrant Breakfast: Continental breakfast at the Steamboat Building Sunday morning.

Sunday Awards Picnic: Join us for delectable treats and a memorable picnic. Awards to follow the picnic.

Monday River Cruise & Picnic: Stay over Sunday night, avoid the traffic and take a cruise on the beautiful Miles and Wye Rivers on Monday and complete your day with a picnic. Sign up on the registration form.

Accommodations: Numerous hotels, bed and breakfasts and marinas with lodging are located in St. Michaels and nearby Tilghman Island and Easton. We recommend that you reserve your rooms as soon as you can as they sell out quickly. Visit the following websites for information on accommodations in the region. www.stmichaelsmd.org www.tourtalbot.org

No pets, unfortunately, are permitted on the Museum grounds during show hours.

Field of Dreams Boat Entry Information for Registered & Non-Registered Participants

Only ACBS qualified boats are accepted: non-wood boats manufactured prior to 1993 or wooden boats of any vintage.

Each boat in the Field of Dreams area must have a "FOR SALE" sign provided by the Field of Dreams manager (see Registration Desk at the Festival), which will include the specifics of that boat.

Pre-registration is not required, but desired, to guarantee a slot. You may show up at the festival at any time during show hours on Friday or Saturday and enter your boat in the Field of Dreams, assuming a slot exists. Costs are the same regardless of the entry time.
